There are two GDPR permutations for ethical online advertising involving technologies in social media addiction:

1. In most cases, it is unlikely that you will be able to make any marketing or direct marketing purpose a condition of your service to being the control.

2. You are not able to use legitimate interests independently.